

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2467 - HB 2634

February 9, 1998

SUMMARY OF BILL: Permits private security officers licensed and registered under the Private Protective Services Licensing and Regulatory Act to arrest the primary aggressor, protect any victim, and report to law enforcement if there is probable cause to believe a violation of the law regarding domestic violence or any assault has occurred.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase Local Govt. Expenditures - Not Significant

Increase Local Govt. Revenues - Not Significant

Assumes some additional arrests and convictions for domestic violence. Assumes additional arrests will involve misdemeanors. Assumes cases involving felonies would have been reported and prosecuted.

Impact depends upon the number of persons convicted of this offense and the resulting increased cost to local governments to confine such persons versus the increased revenues to local governments from fines levied and collected under the provisions of this bill.

CERTIFICATION:

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.
